

Dear Bya and Joe,

Thanks for your thoughtful attention to our desires for making the space more homey and functional. After going through this process totally on my own before, it is really nice to have some guidance navigating the quality and availability issues that are so challenging here.

Talk with you soon,

Kathy